

HOTEL B
Barranco, Lima

In the heart of the Barranco district, a protected historic area next to the Pacific Ocean, is located Hotel B, a Belle Epoque mansion of 20 rooms, member of the collection Relais & Châteaux.

Inspired by the Bohemian atmosphere of the neighborhood, the hotel exhibits a private collection of contemporary Latin American and Peruvian artists, adding a unique charm to the interiors.

LOCATION & ACTIVITIES

The property is ideally located on the corners of Boulevard Saenz Peña and Calle San Martín, in the heart of Barranco; two blocks from the Pacific Coast and 5 minutes from Miraflores. The neighborhood, a protected historic area, is filled with historic houses, its own main square and the famous Puente de los suspiros (Lima's Bridge of Sighs). It has been populated with boutiques, restaurants, and is a walking distance from numerous galleries and museums.

ROOMS

Hotel B offers 20 guestrooms; ten of them have been restored to maintain the spirit of this grand house and equipped with modern comforts; in addition to seven annexed rooms in the contemporary wing and three new ones over the art gallery.

Guestrooms are grouped in three categories according to size and configuration (Alcoba, Aposento, Atelier).

THE RESTAURANT

The Restaurant or El Comedor in Spanish, reminds the bohemian cafes of Lima. It offers an excellent traditional Peruvian cuisine, seafood and Mediterranean flavors, made of local and fresh ingredients. The bar offers a large variety of South American wines, Peruvian Piscos and original drinks.

A summer terrace is open for all guests to enjoy beautiful views, have a drink or simply relax.
